

This is a shout out to all my helpers and new volunteers to help collect prizes for our meeting raffles. I would like to know when you plan on being here and where you are staying. I know there were a few new people that said they would help but not be here till the first of December or January. Please email me and new recruits are always welcome.

Edmund.f.phillipson@gmail.com.